SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

1. During the first weeks of October, 51 Recruiting Bureau at Razlog sent special orders to some reservists of the 1918-1923 class, to supply themselves with a change of clothes and be prepared for mobilization orders.

2. The residents of the Dobrinishte region were informed that crops must be gathered before 25 October 1949. After 25 October, the authorities would not be responsible for the destruction of crops by troops.

3. On orders from the military authorities, the residents of the Razlog region were suddenly mobilized for road repair projects and road widening projects.

4. A high ranking Bulgarian officer (name unknown) visited the towns of Breshten and Srantse (sic) and informed the residents that they were to evacuate the towns for the interior. He promised that the Bulgarian military and civil authorities would facilitate their transfer.
